SCHOOL REPORT.

The Superintending School Committee of the Town of Hillsborough respectfully submit the following Report:

DISTRICT NO. 1.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL. — Summer Term. Miss Nettie Hazen, Teacher. This teacher came to the school with a high reputation which she maintained to the end. Strict discipline and rigid drill enabled the school to accomplish much. H.

Winter Term. Miss Abbie M. Sargent, Teacher. This teacher was well qualified and did as well as she could. The result was a very fair term—much better than your committee expected. But it may not be out of place to remark here that this school in winter is too hard for any woman, unless she be of a very belgerent disposition and have plenty of muscle to sustain it. H.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.—Summer Term taught by Miss Hattie M. Hazen. Winter term by Miss Fannie Henshaw.—Both good schools. H.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

Summer Term. Mrs. Melinda K. Brown, teacher. This was the second term of Mrs. B. in this district, and was creditable to teacher and pupils. H.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

Both terms taught by Miss Hattie L. Nelson and both successful. H.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

Summer term taught by Miss Fannie M. Henshaw. Although your committee did not visit this school during said term but once, in consequence of not being informed of its close, he feels warranted in saying that it was a profitable one.

Winter term. Taught by Mr. Enoch L. Colby. This term continued some four weeks, when the house was destroyed by fire and the term brought to a close. While in session it was considered an excellent school. W.

DISTRICT NO. 5.

Summer term taught by Miss Abbie S. McClintock. Your committee was not notified of the close of this term, hence made but one visit; but from the reputation of the teacher and what can be gathered from the register, believes the school to have been a good one.

Winter Term. Taught by Miss Lizzie Pike. This was one of the best schools in town, and the results of the term reflect much credit upon both teacher and scholars. W.

DISTRICT NO. 6.

Summer and Winter terms taught by Miss Jennie M. Nesmith. Both profitable terms. Miss N. is a thorough and industrious teacher, and her efforts were very successful in this district. W.

DISTRICT NO. 8.

Summer and Winter terms taught by Miss Frankie Chase. This was an excellent school. The scholars were regular in their attendance and prompt in deportment. The improvement in each study was rapid and thorough. Both teacher and pupil deserve much credit for their faithfulness and zeal manifested throughout the terms. F.

DISTRICT NO. 9.

Summer Term. Miss Lucetta A. Tuttle, teacher. This was Miss Tuttle's first school. The examination was satisfactory. In reading and spelling there was marked improvement; geography and arithmetic were well taught. It is believed no teacher could have advanced her pupils more satisfactorily than Miss T. did this term. F.

Winter Term. Miss Mary A. Gould, teacher. This, like the preceeding school, was a good one. The teacher was zealous in her efforts to interest and advance her scholars, and her work was rewarded with the best success. Thoroughness was seen in all the studies and the progress was such as always attends well-directed application. If the scholars excelled in any one study, it was geography: in this they did admirably.—Honorable mention should be made of specimens of map-drawing, drawn from memory, which for correctness and neatness of execution deserve this passing notice. F.

DISTRICT NO. 10.

Summer Term. Taught by Miss Mary E. Andrews. This school was under good management throughout the term. The teacher profits by her experience, and we think improves with each school. With a natural fondness for children, and fully realizing the responsibilities resting upon her as a teacher, none can fail of making good progress. The government of the school and the deportment of the scholars were both excellent. There was seen little to criticize but much to praise. The progress in all the departments was good. The district voluntarily contributed to prolong the term—abundant proof that the teacher was cordially appreciated. F.

Winter Term. Miss Minn A. Dearborn, teacher. The teacher stayed seven weeks. She left the house as good as she found it. We do not think the pupils learned from her any thing good, bad or indifferent; therefore the only harm done can be stated thus: Dist. No. 10 — $50. “Only this and nothing more.”

Mr. Enoch L. Colby taught the remainder of the term (3 weeks) in an acceptable manner. F.

DISTRICT NO. 11.

Summer and Winter terms taught by Miss Mary S. Ray.—The closing examination of the Summer term showed a want of thoroughness in instruction and slight improvement; but the closing examination of the Winter term was more satisfactory in this respect; so much so that your committee is able to say that the school was a good one.

DISTRICT NO. 12.

Summer Term. Miss Mary E. Campbell, teacher. This school was not visited at the close, not being notified. It appeared well at the commencement, and if the teacher persevered in carrying out those plans she had then mapped out, there is no doubt the term was a successful one, and feel justified in so reporting it. F.

Winter Term. Mr. Fred. B. Richards, teacher. This was not a first-class school, although there were many things to be commended. The greatest fault noticed was a lack of earnestness and decision in his system of instruction. If a teacher would have “wide-awake” scholars, he must himself wake up. With more energy and enthusiasm this school would make a good exhibit. The progress was second rate. F.

DISTRICT NO. 13.

SUMMER TERM, taught by Miss Angie A. Ray. This was a good, quiet, little school—good order and very fair improvement.

WINTER TERM, taught by Miss Elvira J. Bueckman. From the single visit made, and from the information your committee has been able to gather, otherwise, he has no hesitation in saying that this was a most excellent school.

W.

DISTRICT NO. 14.

Only one term. Miss E. Jennie Campbell teacher. This school is still in session at the time of writing this report and is in a flourishing condition. It will be a "good school" when we get the whole of it.

H.

DISTRICT NO. 15.

Both terms taught by Miss Mary Hathorne. Both good schools.

H.

DISTRICT NO. 16.

SUMMER TERM. Miss Susan M. Gay, teacher. This was a quiet orderly school well managed and creditably advanced. Much care was taken with all the classes, especially with reading, spelling and mental arithmetic, in which there was good improvement. The term was too short for profit. It is believed one term of twelve weeks is worth more to the scholar, than two terms of eight weeks each.

F.

WINTER TERM, Miss Vilona L. Simonds, teacher. For the first school Miss S. done quite well. The pupils were kept constantly employed and much practical knowledge was acquired. Your committee believes this school never appeared better.

There are errors in her report which have a bad look and which would not have crept in if she had observed the "directions to the teachers" more carefully.

F.

DISTRICT NO. 17.

SUMMER TERM, Miss Abbie A. Peaslee, teacher. The school was not visited but once. The term opened under flattering auspices. The teacher had had large experience, and with her progressive system of instruction we are assured the school was a superior one.

WINTER TERM, Miss Malvina L. Fletcher, teacher. The teacher did not meet with that success that was expected or desired. The teacher, perhaps did not do just right at all times, and we know the scholars did not, and the result was disastrous to the district. It requires more tact than talent to teach this school—with tact and pluck and a judicious use of the birch persuader, this spirit of insubordination and rebellion in this school would soon be squelched. There has crept into this school a spirit of criticism that is far from being meritorious: honorable criticism is commendable; but this eternally looking for chaff is profitless business, often ending in accumulating that most sought for.

F.

DISTRICT NO. 18.

One term, Mr. Henry P. Newman, teacher. This was Mr. Newman's first attempt at teaching. The school was not visited at the close on account of sickness. No complaint of any kind has been heard by your committee, and it is fair to presume that the teacher gave satisfaction.

H.

DISTRICT NO. 19.

No Summer term.

WINTER TERM, taught by Miss Nacny A. Butman. This was a small school, but one of the best in town. Both teacher and scholars did all that could be asked of them.
